OVERVIEW

This 10-week intensive program, located in Rabat, Morocco seeks to bolster the Arabic language and cultural competence of TAMU students by providing a truly immersive experience. Students will go on excursions that emphasize Morocco's ancient identity, visiting some locations that are hundreds of years old. Although viewing these sites will assist students in understanding Morocco, the program seeks to emphasize the country's role as a significant player in the modern Middle East.

PROGRAM LEADER

Prof. Salah Ayari is Director of Language Instruction for the Department of Global Languages and Cultures.
